Implementation Timeline

Which version of the test to take?

USCIS will begin administering a redesigned (new) naturalization test on October 1, 2008. The following guidelines will determine whether naturalization applicants will take the current test or the redesigned (new) test.

An applicant who:

- Files* the Application for Naturalization, Form N-400, BEFORE October 1, 2008, and is scheduled for his or her naturalization interview BEFORE October 1, 2008, will take the current test.
- Files* the Application for Naturalization, Form N-400, BEFORE October 1, 2008, up until October 1, 2009, and is scheduled for his or her naturalization interview ON or AFTER October 1, 2008, can choose to take the current test or the redesigned (new) test.
- Files* the Application for Naturalization, Form N-400, ON or AFTER October 1, 2008, will take the redesigned (new) test.
- Is scheduled for his or her naturalization interview ON or AFTER October 1, 2009, regardless of when he or she filed* the Application for Naturalization, Form N-400, will take the redesigned (new) test.

NOTE: If an applicant fails the English and/or civics test during the first examination, the applicant will be required to take the same version of the test, current or redesigned (new), when the applicant appears to be retested, even if the retest is scheduled on or after October 1, 2009.

For additional information about the current and redesigned (new) test, please visit <http://www.uscis.gov>.

*The Application for Naturalization, N-400, is properly filed with USCIS on the date it is received by the appropriate USCIS Office with signature, correct fee, and the form is completed according to instructions.

Preparing for the Test

What study materials are available and how can I find English language, civics, and/or citizenship classes?

The USCIS Office of Citizenship has developed a variety of study materials for the redesigned (new) naturalization test. These materials include Civics Flash Cards, Learn About the United States: Quick Civics Lessons, and translated versions of the civics questions available at <http://www.uscis.gov/newtest>.

For many applicants, adult education classes are an excellent place to learn English and prepare for the naturalization test. Many local school districts, community colleges, libraries, and other community-based organizations offer English language and civics classes. These opportunities, however, are not centralized in one place. To find an appropriate class, try these options:

- Visit <http://www.welcometousa.gov>.
- Look in the yellow pages of your telephone book under the heading "Language Schools."
- Contact your local public library and ask if they offer English language or citizenship classes.
- Call your local community college or school district and ask about adult education opportunities.
- Call or visit a local community-based organization or place of worship and ask if they offer English language or citizenship classes.

About the Redesigned (New) Test

In the interest of creating a more standardized, fair, and meaningful naturalization process, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) redesigned the naturalization test. The redesigned test, with an emphasis on the fundamental concepts of American democracy and the rights and responsibilities of citizenship, will help encourage citizenship applicants to learn and identify with the basic values we all share as Americans.

The major aim of the redesign process was to ensure that naturalization applicants have uniform, consistent testing experiences nationwide, and that the civics test can effectively assess whether applicants have a meaningful understanding of U.S. government and history. Following a basic U.S. history and civics curriculum, the redesigned test will serve as an important instrument to encourage civic learning and patriotism among prospective citizens.

To accomplish these goals, USCIS initially piloted a new test—with an overhauled English reading and writing section, as well as new history and government questions—in ten sites across the country. The feedback from this pilot was then used to finalize testing procedures, English reading and writing prompts, and a list of 100 new history and government questions. To ensure the pilot accounted for a representative sample of candidates with a variety of education levels, the test was also piloted at adult education sites nationwide.
